CHICKERING & SONS,
PIANOFORTES.
THE subscribers take pleasure in informing the public that they have been appointed Sole Agents for these Celebrated Instruments for the State of Rhode Island, and, they would invite special notice to their intention of offering for sale at their NEW WAREROOMS a larger and more complete stock of Grands, Uprights and Squares, made by this Celebrated Firm, than has previously been exhibited in this city.

The subscribers have been conscious of the extra ordinary merits and sterling qualities of the CHICKERING PIANOS for many years. This has resulted from a large experience in the sale of Pianos, many of which were from the best makers in the country and a careful observation of the various points of excellence attained by each particular maker, together with the opportunities afforded from their close connection with the Musical World, of hearing the most unanimous opinions of the greatest artists in favor of the Chickering Piano, and finally, upon witnessing the last and crowning triumph at the recent Paris Exposition over all the most celebrated makers in the world. The peculiar points of superiority to be found in the Chickering Pianos have been so frequently and smartly retailed by the Press that we do not consider it necessary in the Card to comment further upon them. We shall keep in connection with the above, a choice assortment of PIANOS from good and reliable makers at a lower price.

BOOTS AND SHOES.

ZEPHYR OVERSHOE.
PATENT APPLIED FOR.
THE utility, cleanliness, and comfort of the overshoe for Winter wear, has demonstrated the necessity of an article suitable for the damp or wet days of the other seasons of the year, when the ordinary overshoe produces discomfort from its weight, warmth, and non-ventilation.
The ZEPHYR OVERSHOE now offered for public patronage, combines the following characteristics:
They are thoroughly water-proof, both sole and upper, which can be tested by filling them with water to the very top, without leaking a particle.
The upper is made of a peculiar cloth, which, although resisting water, yet can be breathed through freely, thus permitting the escape of insensible perspiration, and rendering them cool to the foot on the hottest day.
The binding made of a patented material, being partially elastic, keeps the shoe snug to the foot, avoiding that disagreeable slipping at the heel, and caging at the quarter, common to the ordinary sandal now in use.
A pair weighs but four ounces, occupies when folded a very small space, and can be carried, when not in use, in the pocket or reticule. For sale at SEABURY'S Shoe Store,
nov21 134 Thames Street.

"WHAT WE SAW AT THE HUB.—Curiosity led us, while recently in Boston, to visit the dollar establishment of Messrs. EASTMAN & KENDALL. Their trade has become so immense that they now occupy four stores in the elegant block No. 65 Hanover St. The name of this firm has become as familiar as household words throughout the Middle and Western States, while as a prompt and honorable business men they are endorsed by the best firms in their own city. Their Club system of selling goods has done more, we believe, during the past few years to keep down the prices of domestic articles in every day use, than all other influences combined. Most of their goods are manufactured expressly for them, as for instance, cutlery made to their order in Sheffield, England, and imported in large quantities for their dollar trade alone."

GARNET GRAY'S FLITTING.

BY MAY HAMILTON.

I remember very well the balm and beauty of that Indian summer afternoon—the purple haze settling like a royal garment over the hill-top, the sunny slope of meadow land stretching away to the deep, dim forest, where the graceful maples were flinging out their gorgeous banners, scarlet, green and gold; and the warm, fruity fragrance the sweet south wind bore up from my rare old orchard rich in ripened treasure. Great yellow pears, with a flavor like Moselle wine; apples red on the rind and sound to the core; blushing, velvety peaches ready to burst with luscious ripeness. If I had a weakness it was for hearing the comments of certain masculine fruit growers of my neighborhood, as they stood, casting envious eyes at the basket of my finest specimens occupying a prominent place in the Horticultural Exhibition.

"This is is a fine property of yours, Miss West. A very fine property, and you manage it like a man," old Doctor Marsh said to me, one morning, pausing undermy loaded grapevines. What higher commendation could mortal woman crave? Lonely old maid though I was, I could not utter that feel that my life had been all in vain!

But the matchless October afternoon of which I write, steeped in sunshine dipped in harvest bloom, so sultry that I threw the windows wide open, and, dressing for dinner changed my cashmere wrapper for a crisp white muslin scattered over with a unique pattern of tiny tufted feathers of vivid scarlet, like the plumage of some tropical bird. I don't know how I came to search out that dress from the depths of the great wardrobe. I remembered ah how well, the first and only time I had ever worn it! The perfume yet lingering in its folds suggested a curving line of sea shore shining like powdered silver under a yellow August moon, a sweet, wild waltz stirring the dewy air with thrills of maddest melody, and a voice deeper than the summer sea, sweeter than the throbbing waltz, telling an old story over again in my ear. Just one foolish moment I stood living it over again—the moon-rise, the music, and John Edgeworth's voice, then turning suddenly to my toilet table I caught the glimmer of a gray hair threading itself along my hairbrush and the picture faded, showing only an old maid who lived alone with her servants and managed her property like a man.

Rachel Brown came pattering up stairs just then, to say that dinner was on the table and ask whether she could make sponge cake or jelly tarts for tea. I started guiltily and said, 'Yes certainly,' and that best of living creatures went away without a word, as is her way to do when I am in one of my absent-minded moods. She never bothers me in the least.

I did everything I could think of to amuse myself and while away time that long, bright afternoon, but my customary resources seemed somehow to fail me strangely. I read till my eyes ached, danced, with needless precision, some delicate hose I never intended to wear again, and a dozen more such nonsensical things as women will do sometimes to cheat an hour of heartache, even to pulling down my hair, dressing it over in a new and unbecoming fashion, tying it so tight I could hardly shut my eyes. But I grew weary at last of making such a goose of myself, and hunted up a little white sacque I had commenced one day out of compassion for my poor shoulders, always chilly of a morning—true there are breakfast shawls but I hate them, they fetter one's arms so.

The silken wreath of convolvuli grew rapidly until the last stitch was set, and then of course I hastened to try it on before the glass. One glance at myself in white cashmere was quite enough, and I crammed it out of sight, confident that I knew at last exactly how I should look if I were dead and dressed to be seen. Then I went to the window and leaned out, resolving to give my laziness an airing and en ing waillugly out from under her closely-gathered shawl.

Here was a situation for two old maids to be forced into! While Rachel Brown, who always does the right thing at the right instant, was hushing the baby on one hand and bathing its pale mother's still face with the other I was fumbling helplessly among the bottles on my bureau, upsetting everything I could lay hands on.

'What in the world shall we do Rachel?' I asked helplessly viewing the situation.

'Do! I don't see but one thing there is to do, and that is to undress this couple of invalids and tuck em into bed. I know sumthin' about babies if I am an old maid. I nussed Cap'n Eatons wife with her twins only the spring afore the Cap'n was drowned in the Specific Ocean, and I'll bet my new false teeth this little critter here ain't a day over three weeks old. No doubt some wretch of a relation has turned this poor child out doors with her baby in her arms, and seein' you and I, Miss Helen, don't happen to be perfectionists, it aint for us to cast the fust stone at her.'

There is no gainsaying. Rachel Brown. Just then I had as fervent an admiration for her as Betsy Trotwood had for Mr. Dick when she appealed to him to know what disposition she should make of David Copperfield and was straightway advised to wash him.

Rachel always ordered me round, and always will, I dare say. If she should tell me to go up on the top of the house and sit on the floor of that little room in the cupalo two hours with my eyes shut, I suppose I should obey her merely from the force of habit; though when she gets to ignoring my twenty-nine years of world wisdom too utterly, I have only to threaten her that I will marry old Doctor Marsh and his three redhaired children, adn everybody knows he has asked me regularly twice a year ever since his wife died. But Doctor Marsh is too dire a penalty to pay for the melancholy satisfaction of having Mrs. on my Tombstone.

Well, as I was saying, just as worthy Miss Trotwood took Mr. Dick's advice, I took Rachel Brown's. Behold the strange girl then, long ere the twilight fell; robed in one of my ruffled cambric nightgowns that was a world too long for her, and tucked into bed, where she lay like a broken lily with the little one on her arm, its two pink fists pressed against its rosebud of a mouth, and as I sat by watching them, both lying there sound asleep, I dropped a few foolish tears, thinking how improbable it was that I would ever own a baby with pink fists and golden rings of hair all over its pretty head.

It was deep into the night before the young mother woke, rested and refreshed, her cheeks quite free of the feverish scarlet spot Rachel Brown had remarked as meaning mischief. I shall never forget the gratitude that looked out of her beautiful eyes as she lay languidly content gazing into my face.

'I knew you were good and gentle when I look up and saw you leaning out of the window, this afternoon, eFew women would have taken me in as you did. You won't let anybody come here and take my baby away from me, will you?' she pleaded like a frightened child, the anxious, excited look coming again over her face.

'Certainly not,' I said, soothingly; 'you may rest in peace. No one shall harm you.

'I'd like to see anybody undertake to do it anyhow,' chimed in Rachel Brown, her head appearing over the foot board; 'there aint any law in the land that can take a nussin' baby away from its mother. Now you jest lay still and not fret yourself into a fever, nobody ever comes here but the butcher and milk boy, unless the sewin' society should happen to get short of news and send out pollectin' items as they've been known to do afore to-day. But if any of 'em strike for this house I'll jest commence singing':

"Tramp, tramp, tramp, the boys are marchin'" like all the nation, and that'll give you the hint to cuddle up the baby and keep her from cryin' and betrayin' us.'

'Don't you really believe any one has power to force me to give up the child?' the girl asked, again, too much engrossed with her own terror to smile at Rachel Brown.

'I am confident there is no such danger' I said; 'a mother is of course the proper guardian of her infant. Is it your husband you fear?'

Her fair face was stainless of any shadow of guilt as she answered my sudden question, though the blue eyes filled with tears.

'My husband! ah no. God knows if he had lived, baby and I had never been driven to seek shelter and protection at the hands of a stranger.'

Somehow all my vague doubts fled at the sad despairing tone, and a strange yearning pity grew up in my heart for one so young, so beautiful and so utterly friendless.

'I will be your friend,' I said, gently. 'No harm shall reach you or your babe; and if you are hiding from any real or fancied foe my house shall be your stronghold as long as you choose.'

'There! now I remember you—your voice has the old clear ring in it,' she cried, delightedly, sitting up in bed, her eyes growing glad and her cheek scarlet with excitement. 'Don't I know now that I am safe? Do try and remember me. I am Garnet; Garnet Gray.'

A few days ago a youth, sitting in a New Orleans street car, in close proximity to an elderly gentleman of respectable appearance, to guard against the unpleasant consequences of an incipient catarrh, put his hand (as he supposed) into a side pocket of his overcoat, drew out a handkerchief and wiped his nose, and then replaced it in the pocket from which it was taken. "Young gentleman," remarked the elderly party at his side to the youth, in a voice unpleasantly distinct to everybody in the car, "that is the most infernally impudent trick that I ever saw perpetrated" "What, sir!" exclaimed the astonished youth. "I say, sir," said the old gentleman with increasing irateness, "that taking another person's handkerchief from his pocket and wiping your nose with it, and putting it back, without so much as saying 'by your leave,' is the d—dest piece of impudence I ever experienced!" Light immediately beamed upon the mind of the astonished youth, and he stopped at that corner rather precipitately.

No Foreign Intervention.—Scene in a public sitting room. Frenchman of the sans culotte order in a corner, smoking a short, dirty pipe. Enter a self-evident Yankee adventurer, with a stupendous shiny stovepipe towering above his soap-locks, and wrapped in a long-tailed overcoat. He walks up against the hot stove and a thin but fragrant wreath of smoke curls upward from his coat tail to the ceiling, whereat the Frenchman replenishes his bowl with tobacco and garlic, and puffs away with a vigor of a locomotive. The column of smoke from the Yankee's coat tail assumes a darker hue, and the atmosphere savors of tobacco, garlic and burnt wool. The Yankee glances angrily at Frenchy, and profanely exclaims:

"Darn the blasted old pipe!"

The Frenchman placidly removes the stem from his mouth:

"Oui, oui, darn ze busted old pipe, and darn ze busted old coat tail, too. Here you smoke him zees ten, twinty minutes, and he stink sacre bleu! and I nevaire say one word, I smoke my pipe; you smoke your coat tail. Boze genteelmen sall smoke zat vich sall please him best."

The Yankee gave one hasty glance in the rear and sailed from the room, leaving a trail of stifling smoke behind him.

NEWPORT DAILY NEWS.

Our Next Governor.

Ad. Gen. Burnside positively declines reelection as Governor of Rhode Island. It is a matter of some interest to the people of the State as to who shall be his successor. The name of our present worthy Lieutenant Governor, Hon. Pardon W. Stevens has been brought forward, and we have had opportunity to know that leading men in all parts of the State have expressed their readiness to give him their support, and he could doubtless be elected if he would accept the nomination. But this he is understood to positively decline and no argument of his friends can change his determination on this point. Under these circumstances we must look elsewhere for a candidate. Several gentlemen have been named for the position, most prominent among whom is the Hon. Seth Padelford who will probably be the Republican standard bearer for the year to come. We are satisfied that no better selection can be made, and trust that he may be nominated and elected with the same cheerful unanimity that has marked our Gubernatorial elections for several years past. Mr. Padelford is in every way qualified for the position, and we doubt not would make a most faithful and efficient officer.

Wendell Phillips is just now engaged in disgusting his audiences by his abuse of General Grant. The American people know General Grant too well to be moved against him by these personal attacks. They would rather trust his "childish reticence" and "obstinate silence" than Mr. Phillip's ill-timed and ill-judged harangues.

Military.—It will be seen by the following order of the Secretary of War, that the rumor concerning the transfer of the 3d regiment of Artillery have proved correct. The companies, therefore, which have been so long stationed at Fort Adams will soon take their leave for the sunny South. It will be seen that three companies are ordered here in their place and that Fort Adams is to be the headquarters of the regiment. The order in full is as follows:

The headquarters of the Third Artillery will be transferred to Key West, Fla., and companies will be stationed as follows: B and D to Key West, P and L and M to Ft. Jefferson, Dry Tortugas, Fla., Co. G to Barrancas, Fla., Co. K to Fort Johnson, North Carolina, and Co. H to Fort Macon, Ga. The two last companies are to go by railroad, the others are to be concentrated at Boston and to go by sea. The headquarters of the fifth artillery are to be transferred to Fort Adams, Newport. Co. B now at Fort Johnson, North Carolina, and P now at Fort Macon, Ga., when relieved, are to proceed by rail to Fort Adams, where they will await assignment by the regimen commanders.

Three companies are to be stationed at Fort Adams, three at Fort Warren, one at Fort Independence, one at Fort Preble, Portland, and one at Fort Sullivan, Eastport.

Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, who is, perhaps, Boston's greatest lady notability, is described as a small and slender person, bearing the traces of past beauty. She is a blonde. Her eyes are gray, bright, and expressive; her features delicate, symmetrical, illustrative of refinement and high-breeding. Her voice is pleasant, and she is a brilliant talker. She is unwilling to respect the traditions of her adopted city, and thinks there are other hills besides the one named after the excellent Mr. Bunker. She is a mistress of sarcasm; and it is no marvel, therefore, that she is not a favorite save among the few who give her back herself. She has five children, is not yet fifty, has a home in Boston and a pleasant place near Newport, where she is surrounded by friends, books, and such.

The Weather.—Last night was the coldest of the season, and the icemen are glad. If they improve the present opportunity there will be no lack in this respect.

Boys Arrested.—Four boys were arrested last night for stealing their way into the theatre. From what we hear of the occasion we should think they were more to be pitied than blamed.

Disorderly.—An officer reports some very disorderly persons at the Theatre last night much to the annoyance of the other class.

Full Silver.

The News gives the particulars of a case of "infelicity" between a young married couple which has just come to light. It appears that they have been residing of late with the parents of the husband, who is one of our well known citizens, on Cherry street have not been living together very happily, and as one of the results of their connubial infelicity, the wife on Wednesday left the house and took up her abode with a neighboring family. With this separation of the affinities the matter might have ended, for aught we know, and the conjugal tie might at some future day have been peacefully sundered by mutual consent, but there was a baby in the case, and that which the poet sings about as being a "well-spring of pleasure," became in this instance "a bone of contention," and led to proceedings which have been the almost universal topic of coversation in this community for the last twenty-four hours.

The mother, desiring to procure the babe, had an officer employed who was armed with a writ of personal replevin, but that not being sufficient to justify him in forcing an entrance, a complaint was obtained charging the husband with assault and battery on his wife. Under the authority of this latter document the officer made an entrance into the house, where he found the young husband with the child in his possession. On being informed of the nature of the warrent, he signified his willingness to appear before the Police Court this morning, and answer to the charge. He declined, however, to surrender the custody of the child. The officer then withdrew, but subsequently returned and took possession of the child and delivered it to its mother.

Accordingly the parties appeared in the Police Court this morning, and the young man was arraigned on the charge of assault and battery on his wife. It seemed from the latter's testimony that her husband arose Wednesday morning "very unpleasant," though she did not know the cause. It also appeared that she had written a letter to her mother in Providence to come and take her away, and that her husband had opened the letter, which she found out by some remarks he made about the contents, when she accused him of doing it, and he said "yes." He then charged his wife with writing letters to her mother, unknown to him, her husband, which she denied. He then came up to her and wanted to know if she meant to tell him that he lied.

Hereupon she took her shawl and hat to go out, when he took hold of her shawl and said "No you don't". She then asked him if she might go into the yard and he said "yes". She accordingly went into the yard and continued further on to the house of one of the neighbors, where she still is. Her infant, who will be seven months old next Thursday, was left sleeping on the bed, and was finally secured by its anxious mother in the manner narrated above.

The assault and battery on the part of the husband was claimed to consist in the taking hold of his wife's shawl in anger, when she was leaving the house; but the Court held that this was done for the purpose of detention and not to do injury. So it was not an assault and battery in the meaning of the law. Consequently the defendant was discharged. As this was the first appearance of the parties in Court, and as we hope that the unfortunate matter may be adjusted in a manner satisfactory to all concerned, we omit the names. J. M. Morton, Jr., appeared for the Commonwealth, and J. C. Blaisdell, Esq., for the defendant The trial drew together a large number of interested spectators, ladies as well as gentlemen, showing the excitement which the trouble caused among those acquainted with the parties.

New Bedford.

A velocipede race is talked of in County street next week. The excitement on the subject runs high.

The City Council have appointed a committee to consider and report upon the expediency of erecting in the City Hall, suitable tablets, inscribed with the names of those from this city, who fell in the war of the rebellion.

Mr. Edmunds objected and the resolution went over.

House.

Several bills and petitions were presented and referred, including one to diminish the fluctuations in gold and to provide for a return to specie payment, which was referred to the committee on Ways and Means, and ordered to be printed.

A bill changing the name of Four and a Half street and Lincoln avenue was passed.

A bill granting land to the Denver Pacific Railroad came up, and Mr. Van Trump of Ohio spoke against it.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES.

THE LOUISINANA CONGRESSIONAL CONTEST.

Menard, the colored claimant to a seat in the House, from New Orleans, made an argument this morning in support of his claims. Hunt, who contests Menard, was then heard. The contest is triangular, and presents many curious points of law.

THE SEAL TRADE OF ALASKA.

Mr. Cresswell, of Maryland, and Foster and Brandiger, of Connecticut, were before the House commerce committee this morning, regarding the fur seal trade. Another meeting will be held upon the subject.

INAUGURATION BALL.

General Grant's letter upon the inauguration ball is unwelcome to those set who have been busy getting it up, and who expected to satisfy personal vanity through a big ball in the rotunda.

Several gentlemen went from this city last evening to attend the reception given at Baltimore in honor of Gen. Grant and the other visiting trustees of the Peabody Southern Educational Fund by one of their associates, George M. Eaton. It was a brilliant affair, but Gen. Grant appeared tired, having been bored much during the day by speech makers. He remarked that at a small factory which they had been taken to see, Admiral Farragut and himself were weighed, the Admiral, Gen. Grant proceeded to remark, was disposed to crow over the fact that the navy was four pounds heavier than the army, but I reminded him that during the last few months I had had other matters besides the army to think about, and had lost some flesh.

Senator Sherman expects to get up his funding bill on Monday and to press it to a vote, but it is most likely that the debate will all be profitless, for even those who are most anxious for legislation on the finances, have but little hope of maturing any measure that will be acceptable to both Houses and receive the sanction of the President. The funding bill was passed in July, on the last night of the session, after a most protracted debate and contest between the two houses, and was got through at last only to fall by the President's witholding his signature, and between the three contracting powers and the short time remaining of the session, its successor will scarcely meet with a different fate.

After the close of the morning hour in the house to-day the Pacific Railroad bill was again taken up. Mr. Van Trump of Ohio continued his argument in opposition. There is a general impression now that the bill be recommitted.

The fact that a majority of the members of the Pacific Railroad Committee are opposed to the bill will go far toward assisting in its recommittal. It is said also that some of its friends will vote for its recommittal, in the hope of getting it reported back with amendment, yet more favorably by substituting a government guaranty of the eventual payment of the bonds, in place of the proposed direct issue of government bonds for its construction.

Mr. Spaids of Chicago was examined by the House committee on Public expenditures, this morning with reference to the Wells, Fargo & Co. overland mail contract. It is said that his testimony was damaging to the Post-Master General.

Ex-Secretary Stanton authorizes an explicit denial of the story that General Banks was ever ordered by him, or with his knowledge, to supersede General Grant, and that he was censured for not doing so. It would seem that there was no limit to the erring propensities of the Washington correspondents.

Business Notices.

The rapidity with which Plantation Bitters have become a household necessity throughout the civilized nations, is without a parallel in the history of the world. Over five million bottles were sold in twelve months, and the demand is daily increasing. Rich and poor, young and old, ladies, physicians and clergymen, find that it revives drooping spirits, lends strength to the system; vigor to the mind, and is exhausted nature's great restorer. It is compounded of the choicest roots and herbs, the celebrated Calisaya or Peruvian Bark, etc., all preserved in pure St. Croix Rum. It is sold by all respectable dealers in every town, parish, village and hamlet through North and South America, Europe, and all the Islands of the Ocean.

What are You Taking?

Probably two-thirds of the adult population of the United States indulge, more or less, in bar-room stimulants. Hot alcoholic beverages are habitually imbibed by thousands of people in the winter month "to keep out the cold." The alcoholic material of all these drinks is more or less poisonous, and is rendered all the more deleterious in consequence of being taken warm.

Avoid these dangerous excitants. Shun, as you would shun the deadliest drug, all tavern stimulants. They paralyze the digestion, congest the liver, disturb the natural actions of the kidneys, irritate the bowels, shatter the nerves, and impair the reason.

The operation of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS is diametrically opposite to this. They spur no organ into unnatural activity; but they tone and regulate all. If the digestion is feeble, they awaken the dormant energies of the stomach, and promote the work of assimilation. If the liver is sluggish and torpid, they regenerate it. If the kidneys fail to perform their functions properly, they are reinstated without being irritated. If the bowels are constipated, the peristaltic action is moderately increased, and the discharges become natural and regular. If the nerves are tremulous, they are strengthened. If the mind is clouded, the BITTERS tend to disperse the gloom.

These are the effects of the great VEGETABLE TONIC and EXPECTORANT, which for twenty years has been a staple medicine in this country, and the demand for which steadily increases in all parts of the Western Hemisphere.

It is not offered as a beverage, but as a medicine: nor will it ever be used to satisfy a craving for alcoholic stimulants, because its effect is to check, not to create, a false appetite for excitement. The champions of temperance will do well to mark this peculiarity and to commend it as the only safe preparation containing alcohol, that can be used for medicinal purposes.

The Fellows stole the "Hen" never tire of asserting that "a glass of SONOMA WINE BITTERS last great spoke to a man's appetite, an axle-ent thing as the whipple of tirie wag-on." The druggists and grocers sell them.

Aged People often feel the need of some pure stimulant, and don't know where to get it. Go to the best apothecary and ask for Golden Sheaf Bourbon, and you will get a pure, good whiskey. C. A. RICHARDS & CO., 99 Washington street, Boston, largest Retail Wine and Spirit House in America.

An Article of Merit.—Nothing affords us more pleasure, than when we can cordially recommend to our readers an article of merit. We refer to the "Standard Wine Bitters" of Mr. Alfred Speer, the base of which is his justly celebrated Wine, combined with the bitter principle of the best tonics, herbs and roots which are known to our most eminent Chemists and Medical Practitioners, and will, by a use of them, give tone to and invigorate the system, and put all its functions into healthful exercise. SPECIAL NOTICES.

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup,

Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills will cure Consumption, Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, if taken according to directions. They are all three to be taken at the same time. They cleanse the stomach, relax the liver and put it to work; then the appetite becomes good; the food digests and makes good blood; the patient begins to grow in flesh; the diseased matter ripens in the lungs, and the patient outgrows the disease and gets well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivalled success in the treatment of Pulmonary Consumption. The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs, nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the ripening or matter is ripe, a cough will throw it off, and the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal.

To do this, the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver, so that the Pulmonic Syrup and the food will make good blood.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the ducts of the gall bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved; the stool will show what the Pills can do; nothing has ever been invented except calomel (a deadly poison which is very dangerous to use unless with great care,) that will unlock the gall bladder and start the secretions of the liver like Schenck's Mandrake Pills.

Schenck's Seaweed Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative, and the alkali in the Seaweed, which this preparation is made of, assists the stomach to throw out the gastric juice to dissolve the food with the Pulmonic Syrup, and it is made into good blood without fermentation or souring in the stomach.

The great reason why physicians do not cure Consumption is, they try to do too much; they give medicine to stop the cough, to stop chills, to stop night sweats, hectic fever, and by so doing they derange the whole digestive powers, locking up the secretions, and eventually the patient sinks and dies.

Dr. Schenck, in the treatment, does not try to stop a cough, night sweats, chills or fever. Remove the cause, and they will all stop of their own accord. No one can be cured of Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Catarrh, Canker, Ulcerated Throat, unless the liver and stomach are made healthy.

If a person has consumption, of course the lungs in some way are diseased, either tubercles, abscesses, bronchial irritation, pleura adhesion, or the lungs are a mass of inflammation and fast decaying. In such cases what must be done? It is not only the lungs that are wasting, but it is the whole body. The stomach and liver have lost their power to make blood out of food. Now the only chance is to take Dr. Schenck's three medicines, which will bring up a tone to the stomach, the patient will begin to want food, it will digest easily and make good blood; then the patient begins to gain in flesh, and as soon as the body begins to grow, the lungs commence to heal up, and the patient gets fleshy and well. This is the only way to cure Consumption.

When there is no lung disease and only Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are sufficient, without the Pulmonic Syrup. Take the Mandrake Pills freely in all Bilious complaints, as they are perfectly harmless.

Dr. Schenck, who has enjoyed unin terrupted health for many years past, and now weighs 225 pounds, was wasted away to a mere skeleton, in the very last stage of Pulmonary Consumption, his physicians having pronounced his case hopeless, and abandoned him to his fate. He was cured by the aforesaid medicines, and since his recovery many thousands similarly afflicted have used Dr. Schenck's preparations with the same remarkable success. Full directions accompany each, making it not absolutely necessary to personally see Dr. Schenck, unless patients wish their lungs examined, and for this purpose he is professionally at his Principal Office, Philadelphia, every Saturday, where all letters for advice must be addressed. He is also professionally at No. 32 Bond Street, New York, every other Tuesday, and at No. 3, Hanover Street, Boston, every other Wednesday. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination what he deems proper, the price is $5. Office hours at each city from 9 A. M. to 2 P. M.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. G. G. GOODWIN & CO., 38 Hanover St., Boston, Wholesale agents. For sale by all druggists. Jan1—ly sn

YOU ALL

HAVE HEARD OF

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,

AND

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,

Prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia. Their introduction into this country from Germany occurred in 1825.

THEY CURED YOUR

FATHERS AND MOTHERS,

And will cure you and your children. They are entirely different from the many preparations now in the country called Bitters or Tonics. They are no tavern preparation, or anything like one; but good, honest, reliable medicines. They are

The greatest known remedies for

Liver Complaint,
DYSPEPSIA,
Nervous Debility,
JAUNDICE,
Diseases of the Kidneys,
ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN,

and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach, or

IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil and Great Depression of Spirits.

All these indicate disease of the Liver or Digestive Organs, combined with impure blood.

Hoofland's German Bitters

is entirely vegetable, and contains no liquor. It is a compound of Fluid Extracts. The Roots, Herbs, and Barks from which these extracts are made are gathered in Germany. All the medicinal virtues are extracted from them by a scientific chemist. These extracts are then forwarded to this country to be used expressly for the manufacture of these Bitters. There is no alcoholic substance of any kind used in compounding the Bitters, hence it is the only Bitters that can be used in cases where alcoholic stimulants are not advisable.

Hoofland's German Tonic

is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with PURE Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, etc. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in cases where some pure alcoholic stimulus is required. You will bear in mind that these remedies are entirely different from any others advertised for the cure of the diseases named, they being scientific preparations of medicinal extracts, while the others are mere decoctions of rum in some form. The TONIC is decidedly one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. Its taste is exquisite. It is a pleasure to take it, while its life-giving, exhilarating, and medicinal qualities have caused it to be known as the greatest of all tonics.

DEBILITY,

There is no medicine equal to Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic in cases of Debility. They impart a tone and vigor to the whole system, strengthen the appetite, cause an enjoyment of the food, enable the stomach to digest it, purify the blood, give a good, sound, healthy complexion, eradicate the yellow tinge from the eye, impart a bloom to the cheeks, and change the patient from a short-breathed, emaciated, weak, and nervous invalid, to a full-faced, stout, and vigorous person.

Weak and Delicate Children are made strong by using the Bitters or Tonic. In fact, they are Family Medicines. They can be administered with perfect safety to a child three months old, the most delicate female, or a man of ninety.

These Remedies are the best

ever known, and will cure all diseases resulting from bad blood. Keep your blood pure; keep your liver in order; keep your digestive organs in a sound, healthy condition, by the use of these remedies, and no disease will ever assail you. The best men in the country recommend them. If years of honest reputation go for anything you must try these preparations.

FROM HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

Philadelphia, March 16, 1867.

I find "Hoofland's German Bitters" is not an intoxicating beverage, but is a good tonic, useful in disorders of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility and want of nervous action, in the system.

Yours truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD.

FROM HON. JAMES THOMPSON,

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

Philadelphia, April 29, 1866.

I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect,
JAMES THOMPSON.

COE'S COUGH BALSAM

This long tried and popular Remedy is again called to the attention of the public. As often as the year rolls around, the proprietors annually make their bow to the people, and remind them that amongst the many things required for the health, comfort and sustenance of the family through the long and tedious months of winter, Coe's Cough Balsam should not be forgotten. For years it has been a household medicine—and mothers anxious for the safety of their children, and all who suffer from any disease of the throat, chest and lungs, cannot afford to be without it. In addition to the ordinary four ounce as long in the market, we now furnish our mammoth family size bottles, which will, in common with the other size, be found at all Drug Stores.

FOR CROUP.

The Balsam will be found invaluable, and may always be relied upon in the most extreme cases.

WHOOPING COUGH.

The testimony of all who have used it for this terrible disease during the last ten years, is, that it invariably relieves and cures it.

SORE THROAT.

Keep your throat wet with the Balsam—taking little, and often—and you will very soon find relief.

HARD COLDS AND COUGHS

Yield at once to a steady use of this great remedy.—It will succeed in giving relief where all other remedies have failed.

Soreness of the Throat, Chest and Lungs.

Do not delay prudently and immediately taking Coe's Cough Balsam, when troubled with any of the above named difficulties. They are all premonitory symptoms of Consumption, and if not arrested, will sooner or later sweep you away into the valley of shadows from which none can ever return.

IN CONSUMPTION.

Many a care-worn sufferer has found relief and to-day rejoices that her life has been made easy and prolonged by the use of Coe's Cough Balsam.

IN SHORT,

The people know the article, and it needs no comment from us. It is for sale by every Druggist and Dealer in Medicines in the United States.

MILWAUKEE, Jan. 21, 1868.

Messrs. C. C. Clark & Co., New Haven, Conn.:

Both myself and wife have used Coe's Dyspepsia Cure, and it has proved perfectly satisfactory as a remedy. I have no hesitation in saying that we have received great benefit from its use.

Very respectfully,
(Signed) LESTER SEXTON.

A GREAT BLESSING.

[From Rev. L. P. WARD, Avon, Lorain Co., O.]

Messrs. Strong & Armstrong, Druggists, Cleveland.

Gentlemen:—It gives me great pleasure to state that my wife has derived great benefit from the use of Coe's Dyspepsia Cure. She has been for a number of years greatly troubled with Dyspepsia, accompanied with violent paroxysms of constipation, which so prostrated her that she was all the while, for months, unable to do anything. She took, at your instance, Coe's Dyspepsia Cure, and has derived GREAT BENEFIT FROM IT, and is now comparatively well. She regards this medicine as a great blessing. Truly yours,

Jan. 13th, 1868. L. P. WARD.

CLERGYMEN.

The Rev. ISAAC AIKEN, of Alleghany, testifies that I have cured him, after all other remedies had failed.

DRUGGISTS.

Any druggist in the country will tell you, if you take the trouble to enquire, that every one that buys a bottle of Coe's Dyspepsia Cure from them speak in the most unqualified praise of its great medicinal virtues.

Coe's Dyspepsia Cure

Will also be found invaluable in all cases of Diarrhea, Dysentery, Colic, Summer Complaints, Griping, and in fact every disordered condition of the stomach.

FRANKLIN MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE CO.,

NO. 3 MARKET SQUARE, Prov., R. I.

INSURES FIRST-CLASS DWELLINGS AND CONTENTS ONLY.

AMOUNT AT RISK, $4,500,000.

The object of a Mutual Company is to furnish insurance to its policy holders at the cheapest cost, and the main thing to be considered is, what conditions are most favorable to make the cost as near nominal as possible. This Company will insure nothing but Dwellings and Household Furniture, which experience has shown to be the SAFEST OF ALL INSURANCE RISKS, thus putting the liability of losses at the LOWEST POSSIBLE STANDARD. The premium charged is sufficient to cover all probable losses and expenses during the term for which the policies are issued, thus avoiding the necessity of assessments, which are always disagreeable and expensive. The insured receive all the profits,—every dollar, after deducting the necessary expenses, being invested for their benefit, and returned to them at the expiration of their policies, thus affording one of the safest and cheapest systems of insurance.

THE Union Pacific

RAILROAD COMPANY

OFFER A LIMITED AMOUNT OF THEIR FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS AT PAR.

Nine Hundred and Sixty Miles

Of the line West from Omaha are now completed, and the work is going on through the Winter. As the distance between the finished portion of the Union and Central Pacific Railroads is now less than 400 miles, and both companies are pushing forward the work with great energy, employing over 30,000 men, there can be no doubt that the whole

Grand Line to the Pacific

Will be open for Business in the Summer of 1869.

The regular Government Commissioners have pronounced the Pacific Railroad to be FIRST CLASS in every respect, and the Special Commission appointed by the President says:

"Taken as a whole, THE UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD HAS BEEN WELL CONSTRUCTED, AND THE GENERAL ROUTE FOR THE LINE EXCEEDINGLY WELL SELECTED. The energy and perseverance with which the work has been urged forward, and the rapidity with which it has been executed are without parallel in history, and in grandeur and magnitude of undertaking it has never been equalled." The Report states that any deficiencies that exist are only those incident to all new roads, and that could not have been avoided without materially retarding the progress of the great work. Such deficiencies are supplied by all railroad companies after the completion of the line, when and where ever experience shows them to be necessary. The report concludes by saying that "the country has reason to congratulate itself that this great work of national importance is so rapidly approaching completion under such favorable auspices." The Company now have in use 357 locomotives and nearly 9,000 cars of all descriptions. A large additional equipment is ordered to be ready in the Spring. The grading is nearly completed, and ties distributed for 120 miles in advance of the western end of the track. Fully 180 miles of iron for new track are now delivered west of the Missouri River, and 90 miles more are en route. The total expenditures for construction purposes in advance of the completed portion of the road is not less than eight million dollars.

Besides a donation from the Government of 12,800 acres of land per mile, the Company is entitled to a subsidy in U. S. Bonds on its line as completed and accepted, at the average rate of about $30,000 per mile, according to the difficulties encountered, for which the Government takes a second lien as security. The Company have already received $29,168,000 of this subsidy, of which $1,650,000 was paid Dec. 6th, and $640,000 Dec. 14th.

Government Aid---Security of the Bonds.

By its charter, the Company is permitted to issue its own FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS to the same amount as the Government Bonds, and no more.—These Bonds are a First Mortgage upon the whole road and all its equipments. Such a mortgage upon what, for a long time, will be the only railroad connecting the Atlantic and Pacific States, takes the highest rank as a safe security. The earnings from the way or local business for the year ending June 30, 1868, on an average of 412 miles, were over FOUR MILLION DOLLARS, which, after paying all expenses, were much more than sufficient to cover all interest liability upon that distance, and the earnings for the last five months have been $2,355,570. They would have been greater, if the road had not been taxed to its utmost capacity to transport its own materials for construction. The income from the great passenger travel, the China freights, and the supplies for the near Rocky Mountain States and Territories must be ample for all interest and other liabilities.—No political action can reduce the rate of interest. It must remain for thirty years—six per cent. per annum in gold, now equal to between eight and nine per cent. in currency. The principal is then payable in gold. If a bond with such guarantee were issued by the Government, its market price would not be less than from 20 to 25 per cent. premium. As these bonds are issued under Government authority and supervision, upon what is very largely a Government work, they must ultimately approach Government prices. No other corporate bonds are made so secure.

The price for the present is PAR, and accrued interest at 6 per cent. from July 1, 1868, in currency.

Subscriptions will be received in Newport by HENRY BULL & CO; NATIONAL EXCHANGE BANK, Newport; NEWPORT NATIONAL BANK; and in New York

And by the Company's advertised agents throughout the United States.

Bonds sent free, but parties subscribing through local agents, will look to them for their safe delivery.

Bids should be addressed to the "Second Assistant Postmaster General," superscribed "Proposals, State of Rhode Island," and sent by mail.

HORACE WATERS.

TESTIMONIALS.

The Waters' Pianos are known as among the very best.—N. Y. Evangelist.

We can speak of the merits of the Waters' Pianos from personal knowledge as being of the very best quality.—Christian Intelligencer.

The Waters' Pianos are built of the best and most thoroughly seasoned material.—Advocate and Journal.

Our friends will find at Mr. Waters' store the very best assortment of Pianos, Melodeons and Organs to be found in the United States.—Graham's Magazine.

MUSICAL BOXES.—Since Mr. Waters gave up publishing sheet Music, he has devoted his whole capital and attention to the manufacture and sale of Pianos and Melodeons. He has just issued a catalogue of his new instruments, giving a new scale of prices, which shows a marked reduction from former rates, and his Pianos have recently been awarded the First Premium at several Fairs. Many people of the present day, who are attracted, if not confused, with the flaming advertisements of rival piano houses, probably overlook the modest manufacturer like Mr. Waters; but we happen to know that his instruments earned him a good reputation long before Exposition and "honors" connected therewith were ever thought of; indeed, we have one of Mr. Waters' Pianofortes now in our residence (where it has stood for years), of which any manufacturer in the world might well be proud. We have always been delighted with it as a sweet toned and powerful instrument, and there is no doubt of its durability; more than this, some of the best amateur players in the city, as well as several celebrated pianists, have performed on the same piano, and all pronounce it a superior and first-class instrument. Stronger endorsement we could not give.—Home Journal.
